Wandering in the Wilderness

BY PASTOR JOY KNOPPEL

Dear Church,

It is March which means that Spring is right around the corner! It also means that we have officially entered into our season of Lent. Lent is a period of time in the Christian church when we prepare our hearts for Easter and echoes the time that Jesus spent fasting and praying in the wilderness as he endured temptation by Satan. Just a fun fact, it is also my favorite liturgical season of the year because wandering in the wilderness is something that we all can relate to and have (most likely) all gone through at one point or another. Whether it be the death of a loved one, an illness, or maybe just the curveballs of life I think that we all know what it feels like to feel a little lost sometimes.

This year as you enter into the season of Lent I hope that you will take the time to think about what it means to dwell in the wilderness. Are you someone who is wandering in a wilderness of the soul? Maybe you are lonely, aching, or tired and no matter what you do your heart still feels empty. Are you wandering in the wilderness of the world? Maybe you feel burdened and confused by the amount of love, joy, pain, and suffering that is all constantly happening at once with no “pause” button. Are you someone who has just left the wilderness and are in need of respite because of what you have just conquered? If so, that is important to recognize too.

No matter where you are I hope that you will remember that the wilderness is not a “bad” place to be in. As a matter of fact, it is exactly where we need to be.

May we join hand in hand, and journey through the wilderness.

Blessings of Peace,

Pastor Joy

soul longs for
you, O God.
My soul thirsts
for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and behold the face of God?
My tears have
been my food
day and night,
while people
say to me
continually,
“Where is your God?”

CLC Community: Lent Challenge

Lent is often seen as a season of sacrifice, but it can also be a time for embracing new practices. Consider taking on a meaningful challenge — perhaps 40 days of letter writing, performing 40 acts of kindness, or making 40 phone calls to the important people in your life. Choose something that will enrich both your life and the lives of others. Each day, dedicate time to this practice, and after completing it, pause to meditate and reflect on what God may be calling you to do, both now and in the future. Use this time to identify any habits that have held you back from becoming the person God is calling you to be, and focus on the transformative actions you're undertaking.
